Northshore Students' Artwork Recognized by 2020-21 PTA Reflections Art Program

Bothell, Wash. – Six Northshore students were recipients of this year's Washington State Parent Teacher Association (WSPTA) Reflections awards. The program supports the arts in the Northshore School District and is sponsored by the Northshore Council PTSA.

Nationwide, more than 300,000 students Pre-K through grade 12 created original works of art connected to this year's theme: "I Matter Because..."

Two Northshore students were recognized with Awards of Excellence at the national level and will receive a $200 scholarship: Owen Lorusso and Amelie Fry. Six Northshore students were recognized for their work at the state level.
